

Boone County Symphony Celebrates America's 250th Sunday, July 5th, 2026 Group Registration

Boone County, Indiana performing groups of all kinds and levels are invited to perform on Sunday, July 5th as the Boone County Symphony celebrates America's 250th birthday. School bands and choirs are additionally encouraged to perform their school's fight song. Please use the form below to register your group. We will coordinate with all groups to ensure we have a good variety of music and performances.

Individual musicians and singers are additionally invited to join the Boone County Symphony's combined performance. Students and adults of all ages are welcome to join who have played a musical instrument or have sung in a choir for two years or more. There will be four rehearsals:

- Monday, June 8th, 7-8pm
- Monday, June 15th, 7-8pm
- Monday, June 22nd, 7-8pm
- Monday, June 29th, 6:30-8pm (dress rehearsal)

The performance will be held on Sunday, July 5th, time TBD. All participants must have their own instrument (if applicable) and attend at least two rehearsals, including dress rehearsal on June 29th. Use the second page to register any group members who will also participate in the combined symphony. This will be a great opportunity for your members to perform with other musicians and vocalists!

Group Name _____

Group Email Address _____

Primary Contact Name _____

Alternate Contact Name _____

Type of Performing Group _____

Please completed registration forms via one of the options below:

boonecountyin@gmail.com

1901 Elizaville Rd, Lebanon, IN 46052

<https://symphony.boonecountyin.org/>

or turn in directly at Farris Wheel Studio & Store or Lebanon Public Library

